Awards

The 2009 Marching Band Season came to a rousing close with the 21st Annual Marching Band Concert. The band featured musical highlights of the season while the majorettes and flag corps whirled and twirled to the percussive beat.

Our senior band members were recognized for their leadership and musical contributions. Awards were presented to the majorettes and flag corps members whose hard work and dedication truly add a special touch to our performances. Special thanks go to flag corps advisor, Mrs. Traci Schweizer, majorette advisor, Miss Kaitlin Shepler and percussion assistant Michael "Blue" Johnson. Our field commanders Haley Hofbauer and Julia Hage were also recognized for their outstanding leadership and conducting talents.

Several Director's Awards were presented to students who went above and beyond. Both the percussion and majorettes received the Best Section Award. The 2009 Northview Wildcat Marching Band Most Valuable Player Award was presented to Jennifer Grimmer. The 2009 "8 to 5 Award", presented to the student who demonstrates outstanding leadership, spirit, and ability was presented to Jarred Bowens and Matt Jahns. Congratulations to all!

Concession and Football Season Wrap-Up

Although the weather was far from cooperative, we survived another football concession season! Many people contribute a great deal of time in this effort, but none greater than Deb Reeb, who heads the Concession Committee. Assisting her this year were Laura MacMillan, Chris Auckerman, Jenny and Rick Rymers, Marilyn DuFour and a host of other dedicated individuals. Literally hundreds of volunteers are involved in this fundraising endeavor.

We also want to thank Tammy Jahns and Marty Johnson for coordinating all of the chaperones needed for every home and away game. Again, many, many volunteers are required to join the band at every event throughout the football season and much effort is required to pull this together!

If you were one of the volunteers who assisted with concessions or as a chaperone know that your time and effort are appreciated!
